

From 7 December

We're on the move

...and moving in together!

To the historic Goods Shed North – 733 Bourke Street, Docklands

From Monday 7 December 2009, the Building Commission and Plumbing Industry Commission are not only on the move ...but we're also moving in together. You'll find us at our combined new home, The Goods Shed North; an amazing historic building that was the original railway goods shed. To get your bearings, we're directly opposite Etihad Stadium.
